The Ontario Small Urban Municipalities (OSUM) is the small urban municipal voice and an integral part of the Association of Municipalities of Ontario (AMO). A number of its OSUM Executive Members serve on the AMO Board of Directors. Policy and research activities are undertaken by OSUM through the staff at AMO and align with the positions of AMO.

OSUM represents the issue of Ontario's small urban municipalities to the provincial and federal governments by working with its municipal partners and key stakeholders.

Each year OSUM holds its Annual General Meeting and Conference in a member municipality, bringing the leadership and voice of small urban Ontario together.
